In Barbara Robinson's The Best Christmas Pageant Ever, Ralph, Imogene, Leroy, Claude, Ollie, and Gladys engage in the most outrageous shenanigans during the local church's annual Christmas pageant. The Hermans have earned their reputation. They set fire to Fred Shoemaker's tool shed, blackmailed Wanda Pierce to get her charm bracelet, smacked Alice Wendelken across the head; the list goes on and on. So when the Herdmans step into a church to take advantage of the free food, the other kids are not so excited to see them take over the Christmas pageant. The Herdmans have never heard the Christmas... This year's pageant is definitely like no other, but maybe that's exactly what makes it so special. Laughs abound in this bestselling Christmas classic by Barbara Robinson! The Best Christmas Pageant Ever follows the outrageous shenanigans of the Herdman siblings, or the worst kids in the history of the world. The siblings take over the annual Christmas pageant in a hilarious yet heartwarming tale involving the Three Wise Men, a ham, scared shepherds, and six rowdy kids. You and your family will laugh along with this funny story, perfect for independent reading or read-aloud sharing. Ralph, Buy this book. Better World Books. Amazon. Bookshop.org. Once Christmas pageant plans begin, they intimidate all the other children into letting them volunteer for the biggest parts. When the town reacts with horror to the news that the most sinful children will be playing the holiest roles, the pageant director becomes even more determined to make it work. Even though they look more like trick-or-treaters than Bible figures, the Herdmans don't ruin the pageant; instead, they improve it, and give the story a surprisingly sentimental ending.
