

The Psychological Phenomena of Christianity. Scribner, 1909. 1909. George Barton Cutten

“I know you’re a Christian, but who are you a Christian against.” Kenneth Burke. In Apocalypse, a patient study of Christian fundamentalism based on extensive interviews over a five year period with members of apocalyptic communities Charles Strozier identifies four basic beliefs as fundamental to Christian fundamentalism. (1) Inerrancy or biblical literalism, the belief that every word of the Bible is to be taken literally as the word of God; (2) conversion or the experience of being reborn in Christ; (3) evangelicalism or the duty of the saved to spread the gospel; and (4) Apocalypticism or Ships from and sold by The Book Depository Limited, from outside Singapore.
