Excellent classic commentary on three books of the Minor Prophets. I've worked through this as part of my devotions for the past few months. I personally found more enjoyment and edification from the Haggai and Malachi sections than the Zechariah section. I'm sure some of his translations and interpretations are a bit behind current scholarship, but it seemed that his positions and translations tended to agree with the ESV. I would highly recommend this for devotional use and for use with other c Excellent classic commentary on three books of the Minor Prophets.
