

A BRAGG LINE

The purpose of this report is to collect, organize and share my present knowledge about one line of descent in the family of my son-in-law. For this reason, collateral lines are not emphasized. I'm sharing this information in the hope of encouraging further research, yielding additions, corrections and more accurate genealogy. Please help me improve this.

At this time I am seeking ancestral connections for George W. Bragg (1828-1898) of Spartanburg County, South Carolina.

The Bragg family has been in the Spartanburg District of South Carolina since it was formed in 1785. Peter N. Bragg<sup>1</sup>, who died in Lowndes County, Alabama, on 21 May 1841, was born in Fauquier County, VA., on 4 March 1763, and served in the Revolutionary War, moved to Spartanburg at the close of the war and lived there 46 years until he moved away in 1829<sup>2</sup>. Peter Bragg was a witness to two Spartanburg deeds to John Bragg on 20 July 1786. In a 1793 deed, Daniel Bragg bought 200 acres on Ferguson's Creek. A 1796 deed mentions a grant from Gov. Moultrie to Daniel Bragg. On 11 March 1805, Daniel Bragg sold land on Ferguson's Creek and Elizabeth Bragg renounced dower. In 1812, a Daniel Bragg was of Laurens District. On 20 June 1816, "Elizabeth Bragg, Rhodo[sic] Bragg, Abigail W. Bragg, William Clayton, Catharine G. Bragg, and George B. Bragg", widow and heirs of Daniel Bragg, late of South Carolina, sold 149 acres to Simeon Lavender. These and other Bragg deeds are abstracted in Pruitt.<sup>3</sup>

A composite of internet sites has allowed me to construct (but not document) the following: Reverend Daniel Bragg Clayton (1817 - 1906) was the son of Mary Newport Bragg ( - 1826) and William Clayton (ca. 1790 - 1856). Mary Newport Bragg was a daughter of Daniel Newport Bragg and Elizabeth Brewton. Daniel Newport Bragg and Peter Newport Bragg, Sr., were sons of John Bragg (1733 - 1812) and Mary Newport. Reverend Daniel Bragg Clayton had a grandmother Mary Farrow Clayton who had a niece Rosannah Farrow Bragg. Rosannah Farrow was the wife of Zebulon Bragg and she died without children. Another report shows Thomas Miles Bragg, born 1793 in Spartanburg District and went to Alabama, who was a son of Daniel Bragg and Sally Elizabeth Miles. Jan Francis includes Mary Farrow who became the wife of James Clayton and had seven children who were beneficiaries in their uncle Samuel Farrow's will. She also shows (in Landon Miles' records) an Elizabeth Bragg who died 1 Nov 1798 who may also be the Elizabeth Miles who was born in 1778 and married Thomas Bragg.<sup>4</sup> Thus, there are hints of a Daniel Bragg with wife Elizabeth Brewton and a Daniel

Bragg with wife Elizabeth Miles.

Charles Bragg and Moore Bragg were witnesses to the 1793 will of Enoch Floyd. In his will of 1815, George Brewton mentions purchase at the estate sale of Daniel Bragg, dec'd, and mentions his own eldest daughter Elizabeth Bragg and third daughter Abigail Bragg who got the tract "whereon Peter Bragg now lives". Elizabeth Bragg's legacy was for life then to be divided among her children except Polley Clayton. John Bragg was a witness to this will. In 1816, Thomas M. Bragg was executor of Spencer Bobo. The 1816 will of David Brewton Senr. mentions his son George Brewton and 50 acres for which the title was made by Daniel Bragg. In his 1824 will, George Devine mentions wife Mary and children John, Nancy, Rhoda, Elizabeth and Frances, and grandchildren Mancils ____ and Chaney Bragg. The 1824 will of Samuel Farrow mentions niece Rosannah Bragg and also land where Zebulon Bragg did live. These Spartanburg County wills are abstracted in Holcomb.<sup>5</sup> In 1825 the court ordered the sale of the land of Charles Divine for division among his six (?) legatees – Mary Divine, Meadows Harrelson, John Bragg, Moore Bragg and Daniel Bragg.<sup>6</sup> In Spartanburg County Will Book D, the will of John Takewell, made 25 July 1828 and probated 27 Jan. 1845, mentions daughter Polly Bragg and son-in-law Daniel Bragg.

The Bible record of W. P. Bragg<sup>7</sup> appears to support the following relationships:

Moore Bragg (6 May 1793 - ) m. Rhoda Divine (20 Feb. 1795 - ) on 31 March 1814 and had
Mary Bragg, b. 23 Feb. 1815
Eliza Bragg, b. 22 Oct. 1816

W. P. Bragg (24 June 1837 - 16 Dec. 1908) married (on 29 March 1860) Mavel C. (or E.?) Drummond (5 Sept. 1830 - ), widow of George W. Robuck (he died 23 Nov. 1854). They had
Alma A. E. Bragg (30 March 1861 - 26 Sept 1874)

Jesse H. F. Bragg ( 16 Sept. 1865 - 6 March 1885). He was their only living child when he died.
Zebulon "Zebulum" Bragg was a son of Elizabeth and Daniel Bragg and he married Rosanna Farrow, granddaughter of the Rev. War heroine Rosanna. (Apparently this "Recent entry" added to the record is a reference to Rosanna Waters Farrow.)

W. P. Bragg (24 June 1837 - 16 Dec. 1908), a confederate veteran, is buried in Bethel Cemetery<sup>8</sup> at Woodruff, SC, as are:

Jesse H. Bragg (16 Sept. 1863 - 6 March 1885)
Mable (5 Sept 1860 - 19 Aug 1923), wife of Pinckney Bragg
George W. Robuck, d. 23 Nov. 1854, with two children
Catherine Cowan, 15 Dec. 1806 - 12 Feb. 1881, wife of Curtis Bragg, married 13 May 1837, and mother of Jonas B. Bragg

John Brag of Ninety-Six District, Spartanburg County

In the 1830 census of Spartanburg County<sup>11</sup>, at a time when George W. Bragg was about 6 years old, I find these families in which he might be included (especially as indicated in bold face):

Daniel Bragg, age 20-30, had 2 males age 5-10
David Bray [probably not Brag), age 30-40, had 1 male age 5-10
Sarah Bragg, age 50-60, had 1 male age 5-10
Peter Bragg, age 30-40, had 0 males age 5-10

Thomas Bragg, age 30-40, had 0 males age 5-10

Moore Bragg, age 30-40, had 1 male age 5-10

Charles Bragg, Sr., age 60-70, had 1 male age 5-10

Zebulon D. Bragg had 0 males age 5-10 [not indexed in Ancestry.com index, but see p. 305 next to Landon Waters]

James Bragg, age 30-40, had 0 males age 5-10

All of the Braggs indexed for the 1840 census of South Carolina are in Spartanburg County.<sup>12</sup> I reviewed the microfilm record for each of them. These are not the complete abstracts of each census listing of each family.

Curtis, p. 82, 1 m < 5, 1m 5-10, 1m 15-20, 1 m. 40-50

Curtis Bragg's estate, 1848, mentions widow Catherine and two small children, Wm. J. M. Bragg, age 7, and Jonas B. Bragg, age 4. William was dead by 10 March 1851 and Catherine and Jonas each got half of his estate, $5.46.<sup>13</sup> Catherine was age 51 in the 1860 census. In the 1880 census, she was age 73, mother of Jonas Bragg, and said her parents were born in Ireland.

Danl, p. 112, 1m 10-15, 1m. 15-20, 1m 40-50

He was age 50 in the 1850 census, age 55 in 1860. Spartanburg County Deed Book T, p. 335-336 (in 1816), shows Daniel Bragg left widow Elizabeth, and heirs Rhoda M. Bragg, Abigail W. Bragg, William Clayton, Catharine G. Bragg, and George B. Bragg. This was, of course, an earlier Daniel Bragg; also this is not "our" George W. Bragg.

David, p. 116, 1m 15-20, 1 m 40-50

James, p. 85, 2 m < 5, 1 m 5-10, 1 m 40-50.

A James and Nancy Bragg are mentioned in the records of Unity Baptist Church, about 1832 - 1841.

In 1841 he was excluded and she was dismissed by letter.

John, p. 82, 1 m < 5, 1m 5-10, 1m 10-15, 1 m 15-20, 1m 40-50

J. Bragg who was age 56 in the 1850 census might be either of the two men above.

Moore, p. 84, 3 m < 5, 2 m 15-20, 1 m. 40-50,

Moore Bragg was age 67 and Rody Bragg was age 65 in the 1860 census.<sup>14</sup> They also both appear in Woodruff Township in the 1870 census.<sup>15</sup> Rhoda Bragg was a widow at age 85 in 1880 census.<sup>16</sup> An earlier Moore Bragg had died in 1807. According to the 1880 mortality schedule of Spartanburg County, Moore Bragg was 85 when he died of Dropsy in August [of 1879] in Woodruff. He was born in S. C. as were his parents. Dr. W. W. Drummond was the attending

Peter, p. 84, 1 m. 20-30, 1 m. 40-50

Peter and his wife Sarah Bragg were dismissed from Unity Baptist Church in April 1820, joined Unity Baptist Church by letter in 1823, were dismissed in Sept. 1826. Although I did not find Peter anywhere in the population schedules for South Carolina in 1850, he is listed on the slave schedule for Spartanburg County.<sup>18</sup> A Peter Bragg joined the Philadelphia Baptist Church by letter in July, 1850, and was excommunicated in December 1859. A Sarah Bragg listed with him died in June 1859<sup>19</sup>. Peter Bragg & wife Sarah [? -- not dead?] were age 63 in the 1860 census.<sup>20</sup> Peter Bragg's will made, 24 Apr. 1869 and probated 6 Sept. 1869 names wife Lavina, son Cager, dau. Melissa, and "my youngest children". His estate papers say he died on or about 20 Aug. 1869 and name his heirs as: (1) the children of Wiley Bragg (Sarah Ann Wyatt, Thomas Bragg, Robert Bragg, and Mary Bragg); (2) Polly Meadows; (3) the children of Patsy Pruitt (John Pruitt, William Pruitt, Almarine Pruitt, Louella Pruitt); (4) Elizabeth Bragg; (5) Micajah Bragg; (6) Melissa Bragg and (7) "your petitioner" Lavina Bragg.<sup>21,22</sup> Peter Bragg died near Walnut Grove on 19 Aug. [1869], aged 78 y, 5m., a member of Philadelphia Church for 57 years.<sup>23</sup> In 1880, widow Luvina Bragg, age 50, was living in Fairforest with two children, McCaga and Melissa.<sup>24</sup> In 1870, the census shows Leona Bragg, age 40, with these two children.<sup>25</sup>

Sarah, p. 82, age 40 - 50, 1 m. 20-30

Zebulon, p. 91, 1m 15-20, 1 m. 40-50

Deed Book R, pp. 106-107 (in 1818), proves that Zebulon Bragg married Rosannah. This is a deed from Thomas M. Bragg and Zebulon D. Bragg to Toliver Scott in which Rosannah Bragg, wife of Zebulon, renounced dower on 12 Aug 1818. Deed book R, pp. 150-151 (in 1807), shows them to be heirs of Zebulon Bragg, who had bought land in 1794 from Thomas Miles. In an 1809 deed (Deed Book R, pp. 151-152), Thomas Miles sold land to his son Landon Miles and Zebulon Bragg was a neighbor.<sup>26</sup> Clearly the older Zebulon was not alive for the 1840 census. The 1850 census shows that it was Zebulon D. Bragg who m. Rosannah.

Charles Bragg's estate was administered in Spartanburg County, 1840-1756, and James Bragg was administrator.<sup>27</sup>

In 1850, when newly married George W. Bragg was living in Greenville County, the Bragg families in Spartanburg County were headed by:<sup>32</sup>

C. Bragg, age 45 (with son B., age 7; surely Catherine, widow of Curtis)

Danl. Bragg, age 50, no wife, but Willis, 9, and Posey, 21

J. Bragg, age 56, with female M. Bragg, 38, and children

Joseph Bragg, age 54, and Sarah Bragg, age 53.

A Sally Bragg, born in S. C., married, age 61, died in June [1859 or 1860] (thus matching Sarah who was wife of Peter) of palsy which she had had for 150 days.<sup>33</sup>

Remember that the goal of all this is to identify and connect the antecedents of George W. Bragg (1824 - 1898). He first appears by name in the 1850 census of Chicks Springs Township in Greenville County, South Carolina, having just married Mary Ann Childress. It is reasonable to search for their antecedents nearby but in 1850 there were no other Braggs in Greenville County. However, Chicks Springs (at Greer) borders both Reidville and Beech Springs Townships in Spartanburg County. As we move backward in time from the 1850 census, the first event we expect to encounter is the marriage of George and Mary. Since they were illiterate, they would not be expected to have made any record of this event. Furthermore, the state of South Carolina did not yet record marriages. A church record might exist, although they seem to have been associated with the Baptist Church which is not known for extensive marriage records. Some ministers kept their own records and such a record may yet surface [perhaps especially by Rev. Warren Drummond]. Another (relatively good) source would be the newspapers. Many of those have been abstracted and provide no record. Perhaps a private record exists from one of George's children or siblings, but apparently descendant Ibera Oliver never found it or she would have shared it. Land records are often a good resource for family connections but the census records for 1850 - 1880 never indicate George owned real estate and no record has been found. Likewise, no Spartanburg County estate record is known to have mentioned him.

George would not have appeared by name in the 1830 and 1840 census records so the only attributes by which he can be located are age and gender. Assuming he may have been enumerated in a Bragg household in the region, I have produced the above listings from the 1830 and 1840 census records of Spartanburg County. This (perhaps futile) exercise suggests the names of Curtis, Daniel, David, Sarah, Moore, and Zebulon D. If he was not in a Bragg household, perhaps his father had died and a helpful estate record can be found. Not yet!

A G. W. Bragg served as a private in Company D of the 7th Regiment SC Reserves (90 days) and also in Company E of the 5th Regiment of South Carolina State Troops.<sup>42</sup> In Company D he had enlisted 20 Nov 1862 at Columbia, South Carolina, for 90 days as a Private under Capt. In 1902, at age 63, and in 1915, Polly Ann Bragg of Greer, had a pension for the service of a soldier in Company C of the 5th Regiment.<sup>46</sup>

Mary Ann Childress was born circa 1827 in South Carolina. The date is an estimate from census records. Abner Creek Baptist Church was formed from Green Pond Baptist Church in 1834. Sister Mary Bragg joined with a letter from Green Pond on 2 Oct 1858. Sister Hannah Childress joined by experience on 1 Oct 1859. On 3 Jan 1863, Isham Childress was received by letter from Green Pond. An 1866 membership list contains the names George Bragg, Isham Childress, Mary Bragg, Ann Childress, Pernatha Childress, and Hannah Childress. A later, undated, list shows George Bragg, Mary Bragg, Ann Childress, Pernath Childress, and Hannah Childress.<sup>47</sup>

Children of George W.<sup>1</sup> Bragg and Mary Ann Childress all born in South Carolina were as follows:

- + 2. i. Warren Drummond<sup>2</sup> Bragg was born on 23 Jul 1853. He married Angeline (or Anna) Turner, daughter of William Turner and Nancy (--?--). He died on 5 May 1924 at age 70.
3. ii. Elmira Jane Bragg<sup>48</sup> was born on 3 Apr 1864.<sup>49</sup> She married Ben Perry Brown.<sup>50</sup> She died on 16 Sep 1908 in South Carolina at age 44.<sup>51</sup>

Ben Perry Brown.<sup>52</sup>

Ben appeared on the census enumeration of Jul 1870 in Beech Springs Township, Spartanburg County, South Carolina, as follows:

Brown, Margaret, 40, weaver
, Sarah, 16, works in cotton factory
, Minerva, 12
, Ben Perry, 10

and based on name, age and location appears to be a likely candidate.<sup>53</sup>

4. iii. Elizabeth Ann Bragg was born on 25 Aug 1865.<sup>54</sup> She married Robert P. Smith.<sup>55</sup>

One Elzie Elizabeth Bragg, b. 22 June 1861, died 23 Oct. 1908, wife of William Perry Craig (1861 - 28 Sep 1891), buried at Antioch Church<sup>56</sup>, is listed on ancestry.com in the Parker Family Tree by Mauriac Massey. Her parents are given as George W. Bragg and Mary Polly Ann Childress.<sup>57</sup> I have no other confirmation of her identity.

It is unclear whether the confusion at this point is due to an error by Mrs. Oliver, two marriages by Elizabeth, and/or an attempt by me to combine two different individuals.

5. iv. James Crowell Bragg was born circa 1867.<sup>58</sup> He was buried in South Carolina.<sup>59</sup>

Mary Ann "Polly" Fortenberry<sup>60</sup> was born on 20 Jul 1842.<sup>61</sup> She died on 15 Mar 1915 at age 72<sup>62</sup> and was buried in Abner Creek Baptist Church Cemetery, Spartanburg County, South Carolina.<sup>63</sup>

She appears to match the M. A. Fortenberry, age 8, apparently daughter of James and Jane Fortenberry, both age 36, natives of South Carolina, in the 11 Aug 1850 census of Spartanburg County, and the Polly A. Fortenberry, age 18, with James Fortenberry, age 40, in the 1860 census at P. O. Reidville, Spartanburg County. Mary Fortenberry, age 28, was still with James in the 1870 census at P. O. Glenn Springs, Spartanburg County. Thus, since she was single all through the Civil War, the pension later collected by widow Mary Ann Bragg must have been based on the service of George W. Bragg and not on an earlier husband.

Mary and "Wash" Bragg appeared on the census enumeration of 23 Jun 1900 in Beech Township, Spartanburg County, South Carolina, as follows:

Bragg, Mary A., b. March 1850, age 50, widow, b. S.C., father b. S.C., m. b. SC

Bragg, Wash, S G son, b. Apr. 1878, age 22, single, b. S.C., parents b. S.C.

The "S G son" surely indicates step-grandson. The birth date for Mary is significantly different from that gleaned from other records.<sup>64</sup>

Mary appeared on the census enumeration of 3 May 1910 in Beech Springs Township, Spartanburg County, South Carolina, as follows:

232/235 Bragg, Polly A., head, 67, widowed, general farming, had one child, none living, b. S. C., father b. N. C., mother b. S. C., farmer

The next family listed is that of W. Washington Bragg.<sup>65</sup>

Perhaps George W. Bragg and Mary Ann (Fortenberry) had one child together since one is mentioned in the 1910 census and she appears to have been single prior to their marriage.

Generation Two

2. Warren Drummond<sup>2</sup> Bragg (George<sup>1</sup>)<sup>66</sup> was born on 23 Jul 1853 in South Carolina.<sup>67</sup> He married Angeline

<sup>66</sup>Warren Drummond Bragg, Death Certificate SC 1924-9377 (10 June 1924), www.ancestry.com, Provo, Utah, Warren Drummond Bragg, b. 23 July 1853 in South Carolina, died 5 May 1924 in Reidville Township, Spartanburg County, South Carolina, aged 71 y 9 m 12d. He was a widowed farmer, son of George W. Bragg and Polly Ann Childress, both born in South Carolina. The informant was W. W. Bragg of Duncan. He had "no physician -- just dropped dead". He was buried at Abner's Creek Cemetery.

(or Anna) Turner, daughter of William Turner and Nancy (---?---).<sup>68</sup> He died on 5 May 1924 in Reidville Township, Spartanburg County, South Carolina, at age 70.<sup>69</sup> He was buried in Abner Creek Cemetery, Spartanburg County, South Carolina.<sup>70</sup>

He appears to have been named after Warren Drummond, a Baptist preacher who served Abner Creek and other churches in the area and is listed at age 73 in the 1870 census of Spartanburg county. Warren Bragg and Anna Turner are both named in the obituary of their son W. W. Bragg.

Warren and Angeline (or Anna) Bragg appeared on the census enumeration of 5 Jun 1880 in Reidville Township, Spartanburg County, South Carolina, as follows:

Bragg, Warran, 28, farm laborer, can neither read nor write
    , Angeline, 26, wife, keeping house, can neither read nor write
    , Washington, 4, son
    , Richard, 2, son
all were born in South Carolina to South Carolina parents.<sup>71</sup>

Warren appeared on the census enumeration of 27 Apr 1910 in Poor House Road, Paris Mountain Township, Greenville County, South Carolina, as follows:

Brag[g], Warren, Inmate, 62, widower, b. SC, parents b. SC, cannot read nor write

Also an inmate in this Poor House was Billie Turner, widower, age 82, b. NC, parents b. NC. He may have been Warren's father-in-law.<sup>72</sup> I was unable to find an obituary in either the Spartanburg Herald or the Spartanburg Journal or the Greenville News. The record at Wood Mortuary contains no family information but shows the bill was paid by O. M. Moore.

Angeline (or Anna) Turner<sup>73</sup> was born circa 1854. She was buried in Double Springs, Greenville County, South Carolina.<sup>74,75</sup> She is named in the obituary of her son, W. W. Bragg.<sup>76</sup>

Her name and identity are in doubt. She could be the Angeline Turner, age 4, included in the family of Thomas Turner, age 32, and Polly Turner, age 31, in the 1850 census of Spartanburg County, South Carolina. But , matching her 1880 age better, she could be the Angeline Turner, age 6, included in the family of William Turner, age 29, and Nancy, age 27, in the 1860 census of Millburgh Post Office, Greenville County, South Carolina. She is not among the heirs of the William Turner, with widow Nancy, whose will was written 15 Jan. 1856 and probated in Spartanburg County on 18 Feb. 1856.

Children of Warren Drummond<sup>2</sup> Bragg and Angeline (or Anna) Turner were as follows:

+ 6.      i.      William Washington<sup>3</sup> Bragg was born on 22 Apr 1876 in Travelers Rest, Greenville County, South Carolina. He married Nettie Jane Mary Ann Rodgers, daughter of Martin

- + 7. ii. Richard Bragg was born circa 1878 in Travelers Rest, Greenville County, South Carolina. He married Mary Hudson circa 1909. He died on 4 Mar 1917 in Cleveland Township, Greenville County, South Carolina and was buried in Middle River Church Cemetery, Greenville County, South Carolina.
8. iii. Rose Bragg<sup>77</sup> was born in Jan 1880.<sup>78</sup> She died circa 1903.<sup>79</sup> She was buried in Greenville County, South Carolina.<sup>80</sup>

In the current research, we examined the hypothesis that hope and fear have opposite effects on information processing in such contexts. A time-lagged correlational study with 222 Israeli-Jews was conducted using a new computerized information processing simulator. Results revealed that when faced with an opportunity for peace, long-term hope was associated with acquiring information in favor of accepting the opportunity, whereas fear was associated with acquiring information that was biased towards rejecting the opportunity. Results also showed that both emotions were not associated with the Task 2. Choose a subject line for each email.
