If Karma were a donkey it would need a very broad back to carry all the blame that some people will put on it. One mystic of our acquaintance once told us that people who sustain damage through osteopathic manipulations are no more nor less than reincarnated ancient torturers who worked for, or were in charge of, the Spanish Inquisition. We should hate to think that this is true for we know some very good and kind people who have suffered through the inexperience or negligence of medical practitioners, and no doubt you do too. Does that mean the ass will go up in the scale of evolution and appear as a mule in their next incarnation? Or even a full-blown cart-horse? The diagnostics of karma lazarev authors preface. Before opening this book, dear reader, please consider your emotional state. It would be highly undesirable to read it while you are experiencing anger, irritation, or any other negative feelings toward another person. The DIAGNOSTICS OF KARMA is intended to be more than the latest book on a popular topic. For several yeas I did remote healing with my hands, but I discovered the shortcomings of this system about 5 years ago. I was treating the children in a certain family, when I noticed that their grandmothers health was also poor. She turned down my offer to help her, explaining that her angina pectoris required her to call the ambulance service five or six times a week.
