Reza_Aslan_No_god_but_God__The_Or The Mote in God's Eyeis generally considered to be their partnershipâ€™s best book (have a look at Larry Nivenâ€™s Goodreads page). I believe the blurb by Robert A. Heinlein that appears on many editions of the bookâ€™s cover* has been around since its first publication in 1974; For some reason I always find Larry Niven much better with Jerry Pournelle than without; Inferno, Lucifer's Hammer and Footfall are all winners (they have collaborated on quite a few other titles, but I have. not read them yet).Â In a way, Larry Niven's The Mote in God's Eye is two books. On the one hand, we have a serious story of first contact with an alien race very different than us (with their own misconceptions and motivations). I enjoyed all that went into the mutual attempts at understanding. Main Mote In God's Eye. Mark as downloaded. Mote In God's Eye. Niven Larry.
