En las postrimer as del siglo XIX, el relato corto en lengua inglesa experimenta un notable auge no s lo en su proliferaci n como g nero cada vez m s atractivo, sino tambi n en su enorme potencial para la innovaci n y transgresi n de las formas narrativas tradicionales. Muestra de ello son las voces m ltiples y renovadoras de autoras que recurren a este g nero para diversificar, redefinir y hasta transgredir las convenciones de la narraci n cl sica victoriana mediante un experimentalismo que pervierte las categor as mismas de voz, g nero y narrador.
