When we negotiate we're usually standing on the opposite banks, trying to win the other party over. Yes, even if we're somehow aware we're going to end up with a compromise. Mr. Dawson shows all the technique you'll need to make it through the process, not leaving out the important preparations. Secrets of Power Negotiating is a book on negotiating techniques, strategies and, as the author calls them, "negotiating gambits". Contents. Bullet Summary. And Power Negotiation is that kind of book that you have to hold to a higher standard simply because it's that book. The first part is better than the second half that gets a bit too chatty and long-winded. But overall, this is a life changing book.
