What important developments emerge during the intertestamental period? How does Jesus' understanding of the Kingdom of God relate to spiritual warfare? How does the New Testament understand the role of Satan and demons? What is accomplished through the work of Christ in "destroying the works of the devil" (1 Jn 3:8)? What is the role of spiritual warfare in the advancement of the church as presented in the book of Acts? How do the Pauline epistles, the General Epistles and the book of Revelation present spiritual warfare motifs? What critical theological issues are bound up with the subject of spiritual warfare as presented in scripture.

Learning resources for this module:

Arnold, 3 Crucial Questions, 17-72.

Kraft, Confronting Powerless Christianity, 7-26

Spiritual warfare and missions often conjures up unsettling stories of exorcisms, animism, frightening images of three-eyed, multi-armed, tongue-protruding, garland-of-severed-heads-wearing Hindu destroyer goddesses, and cosmic battles between bat-winged demons and armor-clad angels. At least, that's what I thought of when I heard the title of Jerry Rankin and Ed Stetzer's book, Spiritual Warfare and Missions: The Battle for God's Glory among the Nations. To understand spiritual warfare, we must understand our adversary, his methodologies, and our own responsibility in missions. Rankin and Stetzer identify that God's purpose is to be exalted among the nations. That is done as God's people, informed by God's Word, declare his glory. As Dr Tanksley points out, spiritual warfare in marriage is rarely an all out frontal attack. Here's another way to look at what we're up against: "Biblical marriage points people toward God." My husband has worked full time to help support Marriage Missions and us. And because he/we have been in full time Christian broadcasting ministry over the years, we never made much money. But over the years God has given us pay checks of the heart through Marriage Missions. So we are rich in that way. Spiritual Warfare Ministry, Hollywood, CA. 13,851 likes · 10 talking about this. If you don't, I'll carry it for 2000 years till I find somebody that wants it and I will love you enough because I will teach them to love you enough that they will want to carry it to you. And you will take the flame and you will bring it to the other." And it will be a relay that everyone will have partaken in to bring Peace upon earth - the Era of Peace that we're waiting for. This is what God is bringing us. So whatever you do and wherever you
